Situated in one of the largest, unpopulated, and pristine deserts in Mexico, Rancho “Tierra Sagrada” is located 40 km north of Cabo San Lucas, hidden away from bustling resorts and close to charming pueblitos like Pescadero and Todos Santos. With over 22 acres of land, the area is home to a wide diversity of native flora and fauna and a nesting ground for some endangered species such as the leatherback sea turtle. Rancho Tierra Sagrada hosts an untamed coastal desert and is a sanctuary for Cabo Adventures’ Dromedary and Bactrian camel family. Tierra Sagrada – “The Sacred Land” – was named by its prior inhabitants as a result of the energetic vortexes found at the location.

Rancho Tierra Sagrada by Cabo Adventures accommodates five different adventures that enable you to see, enjoy, and explore Baja’s untouched natural beauty. A lineup of nature-inspired tours loaded with eco-educational exciting challenges and unique opportunities which are all part of the exclusively designed activities we have on offer. Discover the Baja Outback on a Polaris RZR UTV; ride along a virgin beach and cacti lined trails on a mountain bike, or an electric bike; experience a calming beachside camel ride; try Tequila tasting; or choose an educational nature walk where you’ll learn all about the flora and fauna unique to this region.
